

Informed Consent Form

Application of Fitt's Law to Identify Possible Dyslexia Using DotToDot

Edinburgh Napier University requires that all persons who participate in research studies give their written consent to do so. Please read the following and sign it if you agree with what it says.

1. I freely and voluntarily consent to be a participant in this research to be conducted by Jon Kerridge and Emma Hart who are staff members in the Edinburgh Napier School of Computing and Sam Dixon, an intern in the Edinburgh Napier School of Computing.
2. I have been informed of the broad goal of this research study. I have been told what is expected of me and that the study should take no longer than 10 minutes to complete.
3. I have been told that my responses will be anonymised. My name will not be linked with the research materials, and I will not be identified or identifiable in any report subsequently produced by the researchers. I have been told that these data may be submitted for publication.
4. I also understand that if, at any time during the session, I feel unable or unwilling to continue, I am free to leave. That is, my participation in this study is completely voluntary, and I may withdraw from it at any time without negative consequences.
5. In addition, should I not wish to answer any particular question or questions, I am free to decline.
6. I have been given the opportunity to ask questions regarding the procedure and my questions have been answered to my satisfaction.
7. I have read and understand the above and consent to participate in this study. My signature is not a waiver of any legal rights. Furthermore, I understand that I will be able to keep a copy of this consent form for my records.
